The Consulate General of Ireland in Vancouver would like to invite you to attend our February Business Breakfast Brigid: A Tale of Power and Strength on Thursday, 01 February 7:30 am PST/10:30 am EST with guest speaker Irish Storyteller, Philomena Jordan, who will share with us 'A Tale of Power and Strength'.

Join them for their February Business Breakfast as they celebrate Ireland's matron saint, St. Brigid. Among her many accolades, Brigid is the Celtic goddess of poets, so what better way to mark St. Brigid's Day (Lá Fhéile Bríde) than by bringing her stories to you.

During this Business Breakfast new Vice Consul, Ms. Máire Ní Chríostal, will also make introductory remarks.

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email of your registration for the event. The link for the virtual event will be sent out to all registered attendees by close of business on Wednesday, 31 January. All guests must be registered in advance to attend.

Mark your calendars now for the hottest ticket in town, the Legendary John Doyle Celtic Pub Nights! We have some outstanding artists taking to the stage, ICS regulars/Seasoned Veterans Vintage Express & Glenn Webster kick off the first two months of Pub Nights before we welcome local artist and all round great guy Jamie Allanach to the stage in April!

Doors open at 7pm with the live music kicking off at 8pm!

Brace yourself for this pan-Gaelic instrumental supergroup, rampant and ready to bite your ankles, raring to go from the very start.

Glasgow-based Ímar is made up of 2 Scots, an Irishman, and Englishman and a pair of men from the Isle of Man.

"There's a potency to the music here that puts Ímar in the tradition of great bands such as Lunasa but with a touch of the Isle of Man integrated into the Irish accent that uilleann piper Ryan Murphy (the only actual Irishman involved) and concertinist Mohsen Amini's musical training brings to the sound.

With enough awards and championships between its players to warp the strongest mantelpiece.....energy that's seemingly bursting to let loose is tempered by a variety of instrumental formations and an attention to pacing that showcases the tunes' melodic strength..." Herald Scotland

This amazing concert kicks off at 8pm and tickets can be purchased via Eventbrite.
